Agenda Item	Comments
Agenda	Marisa called the meeting to order. First order of business – Meetings will be held on the third Tuesday of each month. Budget committee will meet on Saturday, October 17 – location TBA
Comments	Tara Ritchie presented net profit to-date for Term 1 Booster Juice $2,000 & Pizza $7,500 Activity Fee: $8,270 Initial set up fee: $240 (annual fee) Paypal: $2.8% fees $595.29 Total transactions by CC: $20,511.25 We are not a registered charity but we are looking into a foundation to be a charitable arm. It has pros and cons (becoming a charity). Tara has received many volunteers. Pizza Pizza offers a free slice and a drink for a child's birthday. Teachers have expressed interest in ordering Booster Juice so we will gain more revenue this way. We are eligible to arrange a free bouncy castle from Pizza Pizza for the Fun Fair. Parenting expert Karen Gordon has an association with Pizza Pizza and Tara has requested that she come into the school to speak to the parent community – this is free and will be publicized through our communication channels. Will there be ordering flexibility? Yes. For October, the agenda will be sent via email in advance by the co-chairs. Nick is also happy to address issues at CSPC meetings so please reach out to him if you'd like him to address anything.

	Claire Naranjo-Vargas: a group of people in the west-end are sponsoring a Syrian family through Lifeline Syria and would like invite the St. C community to join in. We are hoping to raise an additional $30K to bring over a family and to support them in their settlement in Canada. Motion to adjourn: Elsa Second Jocelyn
